Of Present Chaotic Conditions.

Washington, Nov. 22. — United States already has assumed the role of umpire in the sharp conflict of opinion between Japan and China, as to the general principles which are to govern the discussion of China's case at the Washington conference.

This was learned authoritatively today when delegations of nine powers assembled again behind closed doors to take up the Chinese question. The committee met at 11 a. m. in the Pan American building.

The immediate business in hand was the discussion of the four general principles proposed by Elihu Root and accepted without reservation by all of the powers, and the manner in which these principles are to be applied to existing Chinese problems.

These principles pledge the powers (1) to respect the territorial and administrative integrity of China, (2) to give China full and unhampered opportunity to work out her own government, (3) to respect the open door and equal economic opportunity for all, and (4) to refrain from taking advantage of present chaotic conditions in China to seek special privileges.

With the departure of Premier Briand this week (Elihu Root, former premier, will become leader of the French delegation in the international conference, M. Viviani is an authority on international finance as well as political matters.

ENRAGED FATHER KILLS
WEALTHY PHYSICIAN

Olive Hill, Ky., Nov. 22. — Sometime ago Charles Duval, telephone line man, warned Dr. J. L. Briggs, 44, wealthy physician, to stay away from his daughter.

Duval returned to Olive Hill yesterday after a long absence. He immediately secured a shotgun and patrolled the streets.

Friends thought he had started hunting but when he met Briggs, late in the day he shot him through the heart without a word according to the police.

Duval then surrendered to the sheriff and was taken to the county jail.

Miss Duval, 20 years old, is said to be in a state of nervous collapse.

Ade Carpenter 15, a messenger boy is in jail charged with shooting the lad. The police are looking for a 15-year-old school girl, said to be the innocent cause of the trouble.

Edison Sees
Ford's Plan
Help FarmerObject Lesson Is Biggest Thing About It, Says
Inventor.

BY ALLAN L. BENSON

(Copyright 1921, by the I. N. S.)

Orange N. J., Nov. 22. — Thomas A. Edison is sure that Henry Ford will do a big thing for the south and for the country in the development of the Muscle Shoals water power project.

Muscle Shoals will produce a million horsepower and employ a million men, but Mr. Edison is not sure the object lesson to the nation will not be the biggest thing about it.

"The development of Muscle Shoals," said Mr. Edison to me in his laboratory today, "should cause others to develop water power in other parts of the country. There is enormous power going to waste, not only in the south, but all over the country. West Virginia is full of water power. A water power at work is real wealth. Wheat is not wealth. We raise two billion dollars' worth this year, and a year hence it will have been destroyed, but a water power goes on forever."

"There are no more Niagaras in the country, but there are a great many smaller powers that, in the aggregate, are of great national importance. I have been talking for 30 or 40 years about the desirability of developing these smaller powers and establishing local industries upon them in which farmers might work eight months in the year."

"Henry Ford is the first man in the country who has had sufficient imagination to see the opportunity and take advantage of it. I understand that he has developed 17 water powers in the vicinity of Detroit and established factories in which parts of his automobiles are made."

"Think of the enormous increase of the man power of the country that would result from giving farmers an opportunity to work 12 months a year instead of four. Farmers now don't do much except chores in the seasons when they are not sowing or reaping. They could increase their earnings a great deal if they were able to work in factories when they are not farming."

SWANEY WILL ADDRESS

Frank Swaney, East Liverpool, district manager of the Bell Telephone company, will address Salem Kiwanians at their noon day luncheon Wednesday. His address, "Ancient and Modern Message Bearers," will be illustrated by stereopticon views.

Mr. Swaney is a capable speaker and those who have heard him are loud in their praise of his knowledge of the various steps in the improvement of the telephone system.

DEMOCRATIC FILIBUSTER
SIDETRACKS DECISION IN NEWBERRY CONTEST

Washington, Nov. 22. — The Democratic filibuster to project the Ford-Newberry contest into the next session of congress was successful today when the senate sidetracked the issue to close up the conference report on the Cox bill.

Democrats gained their purpose by five solid days of debate during which the evidence given before the senate investigating committee as well as the trial of Newberry in Michigan was reviewed and argued by senators.

As the matter stands Ford would not be seated even should Newberry be thrown out as the Democrats are supporting a resolution which would declare that Ford had never been elected.

IRISH CONTINUE RIOTS

Belfast, Nov. 22. — Rioting continued between rival factions in the eastern part of the city today. Four men were reported killed and an unidentified woman is dying in a hospital as a result of the shooting, which began Monday morning.

It was believed authorities would resume curfew restrictions to curb night fighting.

Six Reasons Why Red Cross
Chapter Should Be Supported

The following resume of the activities of Salem chapter, Red Cross constitutes six excellent reasons why this great work in Salem should be supported financially. An opportunity for enrollment will be given Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 29 and 30, during the annual roll call campaign. This report has been submitted by Miss Bess Leach, social secretary of the chapter.

EX-SERVICE WORK
In Salem at the present time there are about 76 ex-service men drawing compensation whose claims have been adjusted by the Red Cross. This compensation ranges from $8 to $100 a month according to the disability of the man. Twelve men have taken advantage of vocational training offered by the government.

As the first great duty of the Red

Cross is to the service men we have tried to give financial assistance to the men or their families when necessary. Although we have not been able to furnish all transient ex-service men with all they would like to have had, yet we have never refused food or lodging or any other assistance which we could render.

Free medical care has been obtained for several ex-service men who otherwise are not entitled to compensation.

CIVILIAN WORK
During the past year the Home Service section has helped in some way 73 families in Salem, exclusive of fever cases. There are always some families in every city that need the constant guidance and assistance of a social worker, but the epidemic of last winter and the labor situation of the spring and summer have caused many families in this town to seek assistance that have never had to before. Food, clothing and coal have been the most necessary requisites.

Since the beginning of the school year a great deal has been done along the lines of supplying clothing, especially for children. About 30 children have been partially or wholly clothed during the last three months. Clothes have been given to about 35 adults.

Food has been supplied only in emergency cases of sickness. Through the generosity of a few Salem men many families were supplied with coal at very small expense to the Red Cross.

Many Children
Underweight

Examinations in the public schools disclose that 250 pupils are 10 per cent or more under weight, according to a report submitted by Miss Grace Donsing, public health nurse, to the Public Health league Monday night.

More than this number were found to be under weight, but others were below the 10 per cent mark. The examinations show that many of the defects can be corrected, Miss Donsing reports, through the co-operation of parents.

State Closes
Case Against
Screen StarDefense Able To Develop
That State Witness Changed Story.

San Francisco, Nov. 22. — The state's case against Roscoe "Red" Arbuckle is in.

Additional witnesses will be heard today but the manslaughter charge will stand or fall on the testimony already given. The case reached its climax late yesterday with the conclusion of the testimony of Alice Blake.

When the jury filed out after hearing Zey Prevon and Miss Alice Blake tell their stories, it was a case of even Stephen between prosecution and defense.

Inclined to smile a bit nervously to answer a trifling question, Zey Prevon, though one of the state's star witnesses, struck several blows to their case.

The defense was able to develop that she had changed her story following a threat from a detective. However, she repaired part of this damage to the state's case by explaining the change was made because she was misunderstood and in the interest of truth.

Another point upon which the defense made much was the fact that Virginia Rappe's statement, "He hurt me," followed an ice bath to and from which she was carried by Fred Fishback. The state partly repaired this breach in its case when Alice Blake testified that Arbuckle responded to the declaration of Miss Rappe with the admonition:

"Shut up, you're crazy."

Seemed True To Them

The two girls painted the rather sordid picture of the Arbuckle party. In the retrospect, it seemed rather tame to both of them, it appeared from their testimony. There were "some drinks, some food, some dancing and some conversation," then the tragic denouement.

It was Virginia Rappe who suggested the dancing, Alice Blake believed. She made an excellent witness. She weighed her words. If uncertain she said so. Her replies sometimes were a full minute coming. Asked as to one detail of the treatment of Miss Rappe in which Arbuckle figured, it seemed as if she could not answer. Her lips moved and her face quivered convulsively, but there was no sound. The sound of a pin dropping would have startled the stuffy little court room as it waited her words. Finally they came, clear and distinct when finally spoken.

The two girls will both take the stand again before the trial closes. Counsel McNabb stated the defense might desire to question Zey Prevon again. Alice Blake was to take the stand again this morning when court convenes to answer a few cross-examination questions as to a statement made by Detective Kennedy.

The defense will require about ten days to put in their case.

MISS. GRANBY TO APPEAR

The ad of W. S. Arbuckle Furniture company for Tuesday should read that Miss Virginia Granby will be seen at 2 p. m. Thursday at Baby's dance, Jinks hall, instead of Friday night as listed. Friday at 9:30 p. m., Miss Granby will attend the Moose dance, instead of Thursday as mentioned by mistake.

Resolutions relating to road building, taxes, and rural schools were passed by Columbiana County Pomona grange in session Saturday at Calcutta grange hall, near East Liverpool. The annual election of officers also claimed attention. Here are ten resolutions:

"Whereas there is an almost universal complaint of high taxes by property owners, we the members of Columbiana County Pomona grange hereby try to point to a way of relief.

"We disapprove of a continuance of a road building system that costs approximately $40,000 per mile and is built especially for the city to city traffic, depriving great majorities of farmers of even a passable road to the main thoroughfares, but would urge the use of native material with the view of some time giving every farmer a road passable to reach the main lines of travel.

"That we insist on a stricter adherence to the Smith one per cent tax law and that if we must have classification of property for tax purposes then we insist on a maximum of ten mills that can be levied on real estate without a two-thirds vote of the electors of the political divisions affected.

"Whereas our schools are now costing in the rural districts about three times what they did before the war and whereas the governing powers are urging all classes of people to return to normalcy, therefore we request our county school board to a more economical use of the funds at their disposal and all other school (Continued on third page)

Helping Crippled Children

MORE than ten million dollars will be invested by the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine in hospitals for crippled children. Seven hospitals are to be erected at the start, into which it is proposed to gather the little victims of physical misfortune for such surgical help and material assistance as can be made useful. If more hospitals are needed there will be funds provided when the need is made known.

There are more than 400,000 crippled children in the country. So the survey made for the Shriners has disclosed. Not all are in need of the care of these hospitals. Some could not be helped, but many need the hospitals and many could be helped. The doors of these great hospitals are to be kept open and as rapidly as the little cases can be handled they will be received and the work will be continued as long as there is need for it. There are so many in this pitiful army of misfortune and each year there are so many recruits, that the need for the hospitals will be continuous and the support of the members of the Shrine will be continuous and to the limit.

Even an outsider may sometimes catch a glimpse of the warm glow of good fellowship that pervades the Shrine. There is something in the association that mellow the heart and enlarges that feeling of tender consideration for those who are victims of adversity and misfortune. It is to the credit of the Shrine that wise counsel has marshaled that feeling of consideration and organized it in a movement so greatly needed and so promising of increased happiness in the world. It will help increase the sum of human happiness and efforts of that sort are always worth while and deserving of commendation. The world is filled with activities of organizations seeking to make the days brighter and happier for some one whose lines have fallen in unhappy places. Human helpfulness never was more in evidence, never more wisely organized and directed. The gospel of human service never had more active workers teaching and preaching and practicing it.

Plans For Alaska
PRESIDENT HARDING has directed the attention of the country to Alaska's needs. He will endeavor, so it is said, to give the right kind of government to that great territory, which is larger than all the New England states, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi and Tennessee put together.

We really know little about Alaska. We think of it as a land of eternal snow, where after much suffering and many deaths some gold was obtained and where we get a considerable supply of furs. We do not stop to think that it has the greatest gold mine in all the world, the Treadwell; that it has the only tin mine on this continent, copper enough to supply the world hundreds of years, 21,000,000 acres of coal, great supplies of oil, all manners of minerals, to say nothing of enough wood pulp to supply paper for the United States for years to come.

People do not know, or they have given little thought, to the great resources which Alaska has in its fish; in its grazing land where immense herds of reindeer may be raised to replenish our meat supply; of all the wealth so far discovered and with infinite possibilities in territory which has not yet even been explored.

The people of Alaska say that the trouble with their country is that it is being very poorly administered. Canada has a liberal policy in developing its great Northwest. Our policy has been niggardly in the extreme. Too much conservatism has ruined Alaska, so it is said. Thirty-eight different bureaus at Washington direct its affairs. No opportunity is given those who would invest capital to develop the country's resources. Private enterprise alone can make Alaska what it should be. The present administration is now at work seeking to amend existing laws so as to give Alaska a "square deal." When this is assured Alaska will need no booming. It will boom itself.

Comly Tomlinson, who has been quite ill for several days, was much worse this morning.

Mrs. Mason Henry, who lives near Winona, fractured her arm above the wrist in a fall this morning.

A strike involving 70 men employed at the Erie freight depot, is on at Youngstown. The men walked out yesterday afternoon because the company would not increase their pay from $1.40 to $1.55 per day.

Miss Camille Yates, Woodland ave., will entertain the Prep Club this evening at her home.

As little Harry came in the back door, he was saying to himself, "Well, I got the best of him that time."

His mother happened to be in the kitchen. "Harry, have you and the neighbor boy been fighting again?" she asked.

Harry was quick to reply: "Not this time. You know when we made over here last week we made a kite and you made me let him take it home with him. Yesterday we made a birdhouse and he got to take it home. So today we dug holes and he didn't take them home with him."

Catarrh Does Harm—Get Rid Of It.

Catarrh of the nose or throat when it becomes chronic weakens the delicate lung tissues, deranges the digestive organs, and may lead to consumption. It impairs the taste, smell and hearing, and affects the voice. It is a constitutional disease and requires a constitutional remedy.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by purifying the blood removes the cause of the disease and gives permanent relief. This alternative and tonic medicine has proved entirely satisfactory to thousands of families in three generations.

If there is biliousness or constipation, take Hood's Pills—they are purely vegetable, gentle, thorough.

GAP JOHNSON CHANGES MIND

Native of Rumpus Ridge, Ark., Decides Not to Take a Second Help-mate After Dream.

"I was feeling sorter puny yesterday and went to bed in the daytime, and dreamt that I was about to marry again," confessed Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, Ark. "I thought right well of the lady, too, till after a mess of the dogs had come in a-yelling with several more after 'em, and all tore under the bed and went roaring round and round. Then most of my fourteen children boozed in, cussing and fighting among themselves over which gang of dogs had the right of it, and mostly rolled under the bed with the dogs, where all hands pursued to pound and bite and howl in seven different languages.

"The bed broke down and depopulated me among the dogs and children, and they all took a whet at me. About that time wife mixed in the anecdote with a broom handle, and began to club every which-way. She got me a time or two in the process, and somers along the line I woke up. After I had waded out and the dust settled, I began to think the matter over. And it peared like I wasn't nigh as keen to marry again as I'd 'loved I was."—Kansas City Star.

DOING HIS DUTY.

A Canadian speaker was making an earnest appeal for forest conservation. "What are our people doing to stop this fearful waste of the country's precious timber supply?" he demanded. "Is there anyone here who is doing anything at all?"

Gravely a little man in the audience rose from his seat.

"What! Is there really one?" exclaimed the orator. "And what, may I ask, are you doing to save our forest from depletion?"

"I," said the little man solemnly, "always use a toothpick twice."

Take ARCOLA as a Gift—from your Heating Engineer

We mean it—a gift.

Your Heating Engineer will tell you that three average winters will pay back its cost to you in the fuel it saves.

And think of the satisfaction of having every room warmed by its own American Radiator—the same kind of radiators that warm the White House itself.

Think of the joy of having all the hot water you want for washing or bathing, for ARCOLA can heat the kitchen tank, too, without subtracting from the warmth of the house.

Surely all this comfort is worth the little trouble of telephoning your Heating Engineer. He will gladly call and make an estimate. You will be surprised to learn how little ARCOLA costs and how quickly it can be installed.

Don't go through another winter bathing and dressing and eating in chilly rooms. Take a little comfort out of life—especially comfort that pays its own way. Take ARCOLA from your Heating Engineer—take it as his gift.

The red and yellow card at the right is the sign of a Heating or Sanitary Engineer (you used to call him Steamfitter or Plumber) who can show you ARCOLA. Look for it in his window.

I will pay you to consult him twice a year as you do your Doctor or Dentist. His report on your heating and plumbing costs little. It may save much.

STOMACH TROUBLES CAUSE LACK OF PEP AND DANGEROUS GAS

Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules Promptly Relieve and Prevent Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Constipation

If you are too fat or too thin—if you lack that desirable American quality known as "pep" and "go"—if you have annoying, dangerous gas the chances are there is something wrong with your digestion. Dyspepsia, indigestion and kindred ailments of the stomach and digestive tract are prevalent among American people because we eat fast and at irregular times. Strong, vigorous people are able to stand the strain for a time, but sooner or later the digestive organs rebel. They cannot stand overeating and the abuse of irregular meals and all sorts of cooking indefinitely.

Undigested Food Poisons

The secretive functions of the stomach become impaired. The digestive fluids become weak and sparse when they should be strong and abundant to accomplish their work. This results in the food not only becoming unfit for assimilation, but often decomposing in the stomach and poisoning the whole system. Gas is formed, producing a dull, heavy feeling with headache, coated tongue, nausea, flatulence, heartburn, dizziness, indigestion, biliousness and many other forms of stomach disturbances, which quickly become chronic.

One Capsule Digests 5,000 Grains

Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules save your stomach. They contain a number of reliable and standard medicines acknowledged by authorities to be correctives in certain gastric and intestinal disturbances. One capsule will aid in digesting 5,000 grains of food. Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules relieve disorders of the stomach and digestive tract, quickly correcting the evil in mild and acute cases and gradually relieving chronic and obstinate cases. Some of the ingredients act chemically on the food, aiding digestion and obviating the most dangerous causes of gas; others stimulate the secreting glands and tone up the stomach; still others act as a mild laxative.

Capsules Superior to Pills

Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules provide the quickest and easiest form for relieving indigestion and dyspepsia. Authorities state that the capsule forms a valuable protective carrier for medicines and is far superior to pills or tablets which often become so hard they cannot be readily assimilated in the stomach and frequently do not dissolve at all, passing solidly through the stomach and bowels. The pure gelatin which forms Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules dissolves within one or two minutes after it enters the stomach. This at once releases the medicine to do its effective work. There is no fuss or bother. You simply take one or two capsules and two or three swallows of water.

Satisfaction Guaranteed

A single capsule usually gives beneficial results. It goes directly to the spot. If taken directly after eating, one capsule will often prevent an attack of indigestion. If taken regularly after each meal for a period of six to ten days such great relief is given that even the most confirmed dyspepsia have been thoroughly convinced of their value.

Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules are sold under a strict guarantee to refund the money to anyone who is not satisfied after giving them a trial.

Presiding Elder's Testimony

Rev. Dr. Thomas G. Thompson, former presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church, writing from Johnstown, N. Y., August 12, 1921, says: "I have used Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules as needed for more than twelve years and have always found them beneficial and helpful. They have proven themselves able to give immediate relief when my digestive apparatus for some reason has been thrown out of gear and does not function properly. As I find them easy to take, promptly helpful and so far as I can judge in no sense a habit-forming tonic. I try to keep a small supply ready for use, as they may be needed. I highly recommend them."

If you suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or constipation get Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules today and begin at once to get the results of the renewed vigor that comes with perfect digestion.

On sale by J. H. Lease Drug Co., Main street and Lincoln avenue; Bolger & French, Main street and Broadway; Floding Drug Store, Salem, Ohio, or 50 cents by mail postpaid for 12 days' supply from Jaques' Capsule Co., Plattsburg, N. Y.

Recovering Art Treasures.

Czechoslovakia is the latest of the states to begin the recovery of art and historical objects awarded under the treaty of St. Germain and now in the palaces and museums of Vienna. A commission has just been appointed for that purpose.

These comprise, among other things, the almost priceless documents, historical records, maps and other material which Thunley von Rosenbach removed from Prague by order of the Emperor Maria Theresia. Then there are the valuable documents originally contained in the Royal Audit chamber of Bohemia and the Audit Chamber of Accounts of Bohemia, as well as the works of art formerly in the royal chateau of Prague and other castles of the Hapsburgs located in what is now Czechoslovakia and which were removed to Vienna during the reigns of Emperors Matthias, Ferdinand II, Charles VI (about 1788-1835) and Francis Joseph I.

DOUBTFUL

By MARION E. LEIGHTON.

On this bright April morning Jane recalled with a little tinge of recurrent happiness the thrill of joy with which she had received Don's proposal three months before.

Kind and politely attentive he still remained, but so indifferent sometimes to her little acts and words of affection that at times Jane doubted if he really loved her.

Billy Royal had been Don's closest rival, and she knew that Billy still cared. She liked Billy, too. It seemed that she had liked him more than ever last night, when he had appeared so strong and gay and good looking, as he led her through the fox trot while Don looked on with apparent indifference.

She felt certain that the circumstances being reversed she would have been furiously jealous of Don.

Billy joked with her, but under the mask of gaiety she detected a yearning that touched her with compassion.

"If you or Don ever change your mind, Jane—you'll let me know?" he had asked, smilingly.

"The very next moment, Billy," she nodded, brightly.

Jane deliberated a long time, weighing the virtues of Don and Billy. The scales were balancing evenly until she remembered that Don had seemed moody of late and would hardly touch her hand at parting. Why, he hadn't kissed her good-night for a month. Was not that proof that he had ceased to care?

The scales tipped suddenly and Don went down.

He was going to call today, on his way home from the office. Well, let him, he'd find nobody home.

The next moment she had Billy on the phone and an hour later Billy's roadster drove out of Jane's yard with Jane, smiling and chatting confidentially into Billy's ear, beside him. She believed this new important step was going to bring her happiness.

But what of poor Don? The lunch hour found Jane and Billy at a little table in the Royal cafe, apparently unconscious of the watchful eyes of Don's stenographer, who noted for future conversational purposes the intimate attitude which branded them near and dear or new friends, as the chance observer chose to believe. Don's stenographer chose the former.

So it happened that when Don returned from lunch his stenographer toyed nervously with her pad and pencil a moment then ventured a remark about the merits of the Royal cafe.

Don agreed it was a nice place to eat.

"Oh—that reminds me"—casually—"I saw Miss Jane and Mr. Royal down there today. Probably an accident—their meeting there—but they seemed to be enjoying it."

"So?" he replied indifferently. "Well—why not? Billy's a good fellow—and so is Jane."

Piqued at her unsuccessful attempt to arouse his jealousy, the stenographer murmured under her breath: "Ice! All ice!"

At three o'clock Don returned from a visit to the doctor's office and happiness radiated from every feature and every movement of his well-built person. The stenographer regarded him with open amazement—he seemed to have dropped ten years from his life!

"Doctor just told me I'm sound as a dollar," he explained. "You can imagine what that means to me!"

"But—didn't you know it?" she asked.

"Heavens—no! They told me two months ago that I had a bad lung!"

"No!"

He nodded. "You can imagine how that made me feel—under the circumstances, I'm going now to see Miss Jane."

She stopped him at the door. "Here's a message that came while you were out," she explained.

He read it hastily, impatient at being delayed.

"Don—When you call this afternoon go right in and look on the living room table—there is a letter there addressed to you. Read it—then, if I'm not home, don't wait for me."

The curt tone of the note and the abrupt ending brought a distinct sense of foreboding. He hastened to obey with no response to his ring.

He opened the door and walked into the familiar living room, where he had spent many quiet, happy hours.

On the table lay the promised letter. With fingers that trembled slightly he opened it and read:

"Dear Don: It seems lately that you have ceased to care. Billy cares more than ever, Don, and I have gone where love is strongest—with Billy. Try not to think too badly of me and forgive."

"YOUR ERRING JANE."

With a white face, from which the joy of a short time ago had all departed, Don sank into a chair. A groan came from his tense lips as he buried his face in his hands.

A soft white arm slipped about his neck and he raised his head to look into the moist eyes of Jane.

"You do care!" she whispered softly.

"Yes, answer be crushed her to him and Jane could find no fault with the warmth of his kisses.

"Then it was only—" he choked with emotion.

"A little fool, dear!" she replied.

ARRESTS FOLLOW FOOD PLUNDERING IN BERLIN

Berlin, Nov. 22.—Sixty persons were arrested today charged with participating in the plundering of food and other shops throughout the city. Mobs of unemployed, plundered provision stores throughout Berlin.

The populace was terrified today, fearing repetition of mob activities. The real cause of the trouble was the continual rise on prices of foodstuffs, although officials blamed Communist agitators for organizing the mobs.

Germany faces a hard winter with widespread misery, and the masses are becoming desperate.

BONUS BILL IS LIKELY TO PASS

AMERICAN LEGION FAVORS IT AND POLITICAL LEADERS WILL ACT ACCORDINGLY.

POWER OF VETERANS GROWS

Several Developments of National Life Have Initiated the Former
Service Men and May Yet Drive
Them into Politics.

Washington.—Several senators and representatives, representing both Democracy and Republicanism, have declared recently in congress that bonus legislation for the soldiers of the great war will be enacted into law. The Democrats insist a vote must come on the matter almost immediately, while the Republicans declare it must come later after taxation and tariff legislation are out of the way.

There are thousands of veterans of the war who are opposed to bonus legislation, but the majority strongly is in favor of it, and the American Legion is working through its officials for a quick passage of the measure. Possibly one has no right to indulge in prophecy, but it seems clear to most Washington observers today that the bonus act eventually will be passed, and that it will be signed by the President.

Every man in the senate and in the lower house watched the proceedings of the convention of legion men in Kansas City. The legion has specifically declared against political manifestations of its strength, but Washington realizes nevertheless that the legion today in one sense is one of the strongest political bodies in the United States.

There have been many thousands of veterans of the World war in convention assembled at Kansas City. The enthusiasm shown for the general cause of the organization was greater than at any previous meeting. The officials in Washington realize this, and they have been reading the accounts of the convention with thoughts unquestionably on the election which will be held one year from this month.

Things That Irritate Legion Men.

In Washington dispatches from time to time it has been said that the American Legion soon officially would take note of the attempts of pacifists, slackers and others to belittle the services of the men who fought overseas, or who went into the camps in this country to prepare for heavier service later. The legion men are asking one another today why it is that organizations known for their hostility to the American cause during the war are allowed to take prominent aggressive parts in the "crusade of influence" on the coming conference on the limitation of armaments.

The legion men are also asking one another today why it is that books written by non-combatant members of the A. E. F., in which the fighting soldier is called everything from a cootie to a rattlesnake, are read with avidity by American citizens, and take their places among the six best sellers.

The American Legion men also are asking why it is that erotic novels written by persons who were more than suspected of sedition during the war are lauded to peaks higher than those on which the flag floats, and are bought and read by the thousands in utter forgetfulness of the fact that those who have written them were yet low in war.

May Drive Them to Politics.

These various things taken together are responsible in part, Washington believes, for the enlarged host of veterans which marched on Kansas City and which there again pledged its loyalty to its country, and to the men who fought, or who were willing to fight. It is believed by service men in Washington that if the legion ever does take on political activity it will be because of the continuance which is being shown today to the representatives of these elements in the population which tried to undo the country prior to the war, and did all that they dared in an undying way during war's continuance.

It is shown by men of both parties in either house of congress that the Republicans and Democrats alike believe that the veterans are to be a power as veterans in the next congressional election. There are other men, service men among them, who do not believe that the veterans will vote as veterans save in a few instances, but nevertheless the evidences here are that the scare is in congress, and that from now on the veterans will have congressional backing in every proper endeavor.

It is entirely possible, that if the taxes are increased some day to meet the exigencies of the bonus situation, the reluctant tax payers must give their censure to the elements in the community which since the war, in an effort to rehabilitate themselves, have been doing their all in all to discredit the fighting forces.

Why Buick Valve-in-Head Motors Have More Power

Internal combustion motors are heat engines. The more heat retained in their cylinders, the more power they generate.

Water-jacketing space absorbs heat.

Buick Valve-in-Head motors have about 20% less water-jacketing space than the L Head type and about 15% less than the T Head type.

That is one of the reasons why Buick Valve-in-Head motors have more power.

REGULATION OF TEMPERATURE

According to Opinion of Experts
Proper Mark for the Home Is About 68 Degrees.

Heating experts tell us that churches should be kept warmer than lecture rooms. Whether this implies that the lecture room audience is more apt to forget any discomfort due to temperature than a church congregation they decline to say.

According to the scientists versed in the subject 65 degrees is the proper temperature for a church, while that of a lecture hall should be between 60 and 64 degrees.

Public buildings, the experts agree, should have a temperature between 68 and 72 degrees, while schools should be kept uniformly at 70 degrees.

The proper temperature for the home is about 68 degrees, with bath-rooms at between 70 and 85 degrees. Entrance halls and vestibules should be kept at a temperature between 54 and 60 degrees; gymnasiums 60 and 62 degrees; general rooms, 72 to 75 degrees; sick rooms, 72; operating rooms, 70 to 90.

Experts apparently do not believe in making prisons attractive in cold weather, as they recommend a temperature for them between 50 and 64 degrees. Factories and shops should be kept at a temperature of 65 degrees; boiler shops and foundries, 50 to 60; machine shops, 60 to 65; paint shops, 80.

Something Impossible.

Skin Diseases Due To Waste Products In The Blood

For Genuine Relief Your Blood Must Be Purified.

For real, downright, harassing discomfort, very few disorders can approach so-called skin diseases, such as eczema, tetter, boils, eruptions, scaly irritations and similar skin troubles, notwithstanding the lavish use of salves, lotions, washes and other treatments applied externally to the irritated parts. To correct the basic trouble—waste products—the blood must be purified. Don't clog your blood. Just clean it out. Nature will do the rest. Pure, rich, red blood nourishes the body and fights off disease.

S. S. S., the standard blood purifier and system builder, is the ideal remedy for skin eruptions. The effect of S. S. S. is to rid the system of the waste products which are causing the trouble. For over 50 years S. S. S. has proven to be of unusual merit. Begin taking S. S. S. today and write for 56 page illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free.

"Christmas Past."

IT WAS indeed a "gracious" time, and as we read of the revels and ceremonies and find foolish beliefs of Christmas Past, we might regret what we have lost in this time and less picturesque age, if we did not know that never before in history was Christmas kept so truly and heartily in the spirit of the day as it is now. We have dropped a good many rude and some pretty customs, but we have gained a broadening spirit of almost universal charity, a feeling of real brotherhood, that it is held in check a good deal during the rest of the year.—Charles Dudley Warner.

"DE CENSUS, SHE EES CRAZE"

Jean Baptiste Tells the World Why the Population of Quebec Seems Immobile.

The old habitant of Quebec, who will be depressingly amazed to discover that the census man gives that province a bare 2,245,678 of a population, will trot out his decennial explanation in extenuation:

"Sacre nom de bleu," Jean Baptiste will splutter, "de census man he come to me on de farm and he say: 'Jean Baptiste, how many lil' boy and lil' girl you got dis tam by you? An' w'en I say, takken' ma tam', so's not forget:

"Dere's—Jenne—Marie—Rosine—Angelique—Sophie—Josette—dat's de lil' girl—

"And dere's Polemiquie—Telesphore—Hippolyte—Belzemire—Horsemdas—Alphonse—dat's de lil' boy.

"Dat maudit census man, he write down lak' great heeg foot:

"Jean Baptiste: One girl: Jenne Marie Rosine Angelique Sophie Josette. One boy: Polemiquie, Telesphore Hippolyte Belzemire Horsemdas Alphonse.

"So dere you see how it come Canada got so few population! Me wit' six lil' boy and six lil' girl—and he put down only one of each kin'. Sacre nom de bleu if dar is not a danne counsil for a brave habitant. Why, de 'first tam' Victorine—dat's me de femme—is tell me go queek for de decennal, w'en I come bak from fetch beam, she got two little boy and one little girl for Jean Baptiste. And after dat we nevaire get less 'an tweens at de one tam'. And de census man he write down: One boy, one girl!"—Vancouver World.

HAS ADDED TO VOCABULARY

Gabriele D'Annunzio Is Credited With Making Important Additions to the Italian Language.

Commander Gabriele d'Annunzio has become a colner of words. Aside from having a special d'Annunzio dictionary compiled and published by some enterprising Italian publishers to assist his leaders in knowing the meaning of words not found in the ordinary dictionaries, the premier Italian poet and adventurer lets very few weeks pass without promulgating some new addition to the Italian vocabulary.

The former dictator of Fiume is in a quiet retreat. Various pilgrimages are made to him by men who were adventurers with him in the Quarnero enterprise. Some of them asked him for a new name for cognac. He said: "There is but one name for cognac and that is 'arzenite,' which signifies that it is the very force of the wine."

He inquired how the people of Florence were taking his suggestion that the name of Florence be changed from the present Italian name of Firenze to Florenza, meaning "a city of flowers." The pilgrims stated the people of the town welcomed the idea and may adopt his proposal.

The poet is doing a little literary work while there are no more Fiume fields to conquer.

SIX REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD AID RED CROSS

of social case work. The immediate needs of a family must be relieved first, before constructive work can be started. Usually there is a special reason for the condition of a family. Some times it is sickness, lack of work, desertion on the part of the husband, drink or death of the wage earner of the family.

Each condition calls for a different remedy and it is the problem of the social worker to apply the needed remedy. The basis of social case work is the making of each family as near self-supporting as possible.

EMPLOYMENT
The industrial condition of the city forced us to conduct an employment bureau in connection with our work. There have been about 50 calls for workers of various kinds and about 35 men and 30 women have been given work through our efforts. The co-operation of the various shops since they resumed operation has enabled us to secure work for a number of men who have been out of work for many months.

DISASTER RELIEF
The Red Cross has always afforded immediate relief in times of disaster and trouble. This phase of Red Cross work was well exemplified during the epidemic of last winter here in Salem. The National Red Cross came to our assistance and spent $63,000. Out of this amount much was spent on the upkeep of the four emergency hospitals. $12,500 was spent through the Home Service section for special nurses and relief and $2,191 were spent by the Home Service section from their local funds for relief work.

When we realize that only 50 cents of each membership dollar is sent to the national organization we can understand how many years it would take for Salem people to return the amount that has already been given us.

LOAN CHEST
Ever since the close of war work the Salem chapter of the American Red Cross has kept up a well supplied loan closet for the use of the people of Salem. Any family having sickness has the privilege of borrowing anything that the loan closet contains. It contains sheets, pillow cases, blankets, towels, night gowns, night shirts, ice bags, hot water bottles, bed pans, abdominal binders, pneumonia jackets, rubber shoeing and rubber rings also cots and mattresses.

NURSING CLASSES
Classes in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick were organized last winter but because of the epidemic had to be postponed. In June two nurses were secured to carry out these classes. They were not as well attended as had been hoped but this was more by the lack of interest. When the first enrollment was made about 500 people joined the classes.

Columbus—Misbranded "Pure apple cider vinegar," several hundred barrels of vinegar, made from dried apples and other prohibited ingredients, were confiscated by the state food and dairy department, according to announcement made by R. L. Black, chief.

St. Clairsville—An internal revenue department agent inspected deeds filed in Belmont county to determine whether all carried enough revenue stamps. Then he sent out notices. As a result, a crowd stood in line waiting to interview the agent. Nearly $100 worth of revenue stamps were passed out to those in line.

GAINS 22 POUNDS IN WEIGHT

Remarkable Gain by J. D. Douglas, Proof of Wonderful Power of Nerv-Worth as Strengthening and Builder.

"I weighed only 128 pounds after recovering from the 'flu' last year," said J. D. Douglas, Canonsburg pike, Ashland. I had no appetite, and was very weak. My wife induced me to try Nerv-Worth, which I did, and the first bottle helped me so much that I bought another, and during this time I gained 22 pounds. I can cheerfully $1.00 Per Bottle. "NEW-WOMAN" IDEA IN CHINA

Modern Agitators Work Along Lines That Would Rid Orient of "Clinging Vines."

About the only thing of modern times to which China has not laid claim as being so old in that country that it was outworn and discarded centuries ago, is the new woman with a magazine of her very own, published in the interest of her development. This publication, called the New Woman, boldly states as its object the reform of the old society to give a more honorable place to women, and the new woman is described as "a joyous being, of honest occupation, complete personality, free, independent and mutually helpful."

Yet the new woman of China comes in for some criticism, for among the things she is exhorted to cultivate are plain living and dressing, which, the writer goes on to say, was the rule in old China, but that now women wish to keep up with the styles and wear jewels. They are reminded that the chief thing about good dressing is to wear clean clothing. Another admonition to the new woman of China which might indicate she is prone to err, just like the new woman of any other land, is that she put far away from her the desire for empty glory of "face."

In other respects the things commended for the new woman seem to be along the same lines as in other lands—the cultivation of strength of will to go outside the home and mingle with others and take part in public affairs, and to discard the clinging-vine habit of looking to the men for everything.

TARIFF MEASURE MOVING SLOWLY

BILL THAT WAS PROMISED SOON MAY NOT BE PASSED BEFORE SPRING OF NEXT YEAR.

HARDER JOB THAN EXPECTED

American Valuation Plan of the House Arouses a Bitter Controversy in Which the Women Now Are Taking an Active Part.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—Hearings on the tariff are in progress in a committee room of the senate. The tariff was to have been disposed of a long time ago, but the road to the passage of the bill has been found clogged with the stones of opposition and roughened by the "thank-you-ma-ams" of criticism.

Asked for an honest opinion as to the date of the passage of the tariff bill, a supposed expert in prophecy said the other day that the bill would "blow through" when the spring hepatitis began to creep above the earth. This means April. It was thought and even promised last spring that the tariff and taxation would be out of the way by Labor day, but every day on the two propositions seems to have been Labor day, and the end for one of the bills, at any rate, is as yet far off.

This is not entirely the fault of the members of the majority party in congress. The Republicans seemingly wanted to put through tariff as fast as possible, but they found out that the customs viewpoint of today, even among many members of their own party, is an entirely different viewpoint from that of the time of the Payne-Aldrich bill.

It is hard for a side line observer to tell on which side of the controversy lies the truth of what is called the American valuation controversy. The house bill provides for a tariff on imported goods on the basis of valuation in this country instead of on the basis of the value abroad.

Some of the great importing concerns of the United States, most of which also are retailers of goods, are bitterly opposed to American valuation. They have started what virtually amounts to a crusade against this clause in the tariff bill.

Importers Called Selfish.

Some of the framers of the measure in congress have retorted that the great importers are selfish and that they are looking out for number one, with no regard for the good of the treasury of the United States, nor for that of the consumers of the country. This is to a considerable extent what might be called a technical matter, and perhaps nothing but a trial of the American valuation plan will show whether it will work for the good or the evil of the main body of the people.

Recently certain organizations of women have joined forces with the importers and have gone into the public prints with statements to the effect that American valuations will hurt the bargain hunters and also the buyer of goods outside of the bargain basements. Of course the charge is made that the women have been deceived, but no one knows definitely whether they have been wrongly led or not.

The Democrats naturally have taken advantage of the delay in enacting the legislation into law, and have charged the Republicans with not knowing what to do, and with doing things that they ought not to do. The Republicans for their part seem to have made up their minds that even if the promise of early enactment was made, the country will understand the reasons for the delay and will not be inclined to hold the dominant party blame-worthy.

Found the Job Difficult.

At the very outset certain prominent Republicans in congress told their party men who were charged with the framing of the bill that haste in the legislation would be unwise. It seemed to be the thought, however, of the actual framers of the measure that tariff legislation would be as easy a thing this year as it was in other years. They soon gave this thought over, because they came face to face with the fact that with economic conditions in Europe as they were, and still are, it was going to be a pretty difficult job to adjust the schedules so that they could continue to be serviceable through the years.

Labor conditions in Europe are upset, and so are labor conditions in this country. The view of the tariff makers always has been that American labor should be protected. It has been unusually hard this year to determine just how much protection is needed. Wages are low abroad, and production there also is low. There is a good deal of unemployment in this country, and things economic generally are topsy-turvy. All of these things have added to the perplexities of the situation.

A tariff measure will be enacted at the first regular session of the present congress which begins on the first Monday in December. There have been a few predictions that the bill will pass as early as January 15, but the mature judgment of the leaders is that the snow will have disappeared from Washington before the legislation in enacted form is ready for the signature of the President.

Precautions In Membranous Croup Urged; Differs From Ordinary Spasmodic Croup

Diphtheria is more prevalent this year than for many years past, according to Health Commissioner Schwartz who declared that many children are dying from the form of that disease known as membranous croup because it is mistaken by patients for the ordinary spasmodic croup, which usually yields promptly to home remedies and treatment.

Speaking of the peril lurking in this misreading of conditions, Commissioner Schwartz pointed out differences and similarities of the two types of the disease and urged certain imperative precautions to be exercised by parents.

To avoid needless loss of life, he directed the attention of parents to the fact that there are two kinds of croup, false, or spasmodic croup, due to a spasm of the muscles of the larynx; and membranous croup, which is due to the formation of a tough, slimy deposit in the windpipe, which shuts off the breath and which chokes the child to death. This membrane is usually caused by the diphtheria organism.

Spasmodic croup comes on suddenly, usually in the night without previous warning excepting possibly a slight "cold." The child often is very much distressed, the breathing difficult and noisy, the voice husky and the cough croupy. When remedies which cause the patient to vomit are given, and often when no treatment at all is used the child rapidly improves and the next morning is little the worse for the experience. This performance is usually repeated on several consecutive nights but between times the child suffers little inconvenience. This form of croup in reality is quite harmless.

Membranous croup on the other hand is dangerous and unless properly handled very often kills. Even with the most skilled medical attention it always is serious and costs many lives.

When croup comes on slowly, especially if it has been preceded by a "sore throat" in the patient or in some other member of the family, and when it is growing worse hour by hour, membranous croup should be suspected. Any case of croup accompanied by a sore throat with "spots" of white, grey or yellow in it, must be considered dangerous although true membranous croup of the most dangerous character often occurs without the least sign of membrane in the throat.

The early use of the proper doses of antitoxin will often cut short the disease so that an operation is unnecessary. When antitoxin has been used too late, or when the infection is intense it is necessary to put a tube in the windpipe so that air can get by the obstruction and the child can breathe. If this is not put off too long the great majority of the cases are saved.

When a child is growing steadily worse, struggling for every breath and the spaces between the ribs, the lower end of the breast bone and the pit of the stomach caving in with each breath death is near. Too often it is at this stage that a physician is called, and when he arrives finds that it is too late.

Parents are urged to call a physician early in all croup cases this winter and, when the physician suspects membranous croup, to permit the use of anti-toxin. Physicians are urged to learn what doctors in their community have the necessary instruments and are able to do an intubation, so that no valuable time may be lost in search for a consulting surgeon when one is needed.

Anti-toxin should be used in all suspicious cases of croup and sore throat, without waiting for the results of bacteriological examinations.

SPANIARDS' DEBT TO MOORS

Art of Tile-Making Is a Legacy Which Invaders Left When They Were Driven Out.

The Spaniards have been fighting the Moors for the last 1000 years, but the Moors, during the centuries of their occupancy of the Iberian peninsula as conquerors, developed much in the way of art and architecture that is most highly valued today.

To them we owe, for one small item, the tiles which so beautifully adorn our bathrooms and which, utilized in various ways, contribute so much to the artistic finish of dwellings and other buildings. The Moors established at Seville great tile factories, and at the present time that city is a very important tile-making center. In its neighborhood are deposits of a clayey earth highly suitable for the purpose, which is ground fine, sifted, dampened and stamped with designs, then burned with a slow fire. Colors are applied and the tiles are finally baked with high heat for twenty-four hours.

Many of the designs are artistic, representing scenes from Don Quixote, bull fights, etc. Sacred paintings are reproduced in tiles for churches. In fact, thanks to their ancient enemies, the Moors, the Spaniards have developed art in tiles far beyond anything with which we are familiar.

TWO COURTS WILL SIT AT LISBON NEXT WEEK

The week of November 28 will be a week of something doing in the common pleas court from all indications.

An assignment of civil cases has been arranged for two branches of the court, one to be presided over by Hon. John B. Worley, of Cadiz, who has been assigned to Lisbon, and the other by Judge Moore. While the two courts are in operation, there will be a special session of the grand jury in the petit jury room, when all of the accumulation of criminal matters since the body was last in session at the beginning of the term, will be looked into and cleaned up.

Bucyrus—For the first time in years a Republican has been elected mayor of Bucyrus. According to the official tabulation of the vote cast at the election last week by Bucyrus citizens, Charles F. Suppose you had the settling of your neighbor's problem—

SUPPOSE it was Brown's case that was up for consideration. Brown is heading in a direction that has brought trouble to a lot of people—a direction known to be full of risks. Brown himself isn't going any too good. There are days when he hits the bumps harder than he can comfortably stand—and he shows it.

There's another road that Brown could travel safely—smooth, comfortable, pleasant, and absolutely safe.

And Brown came to you for advice. And you'd look at the facts and you'd say: "Why, Brown, there's nothing to this thing. It doesn't take any argument to decide this. Turn to the right and take the smooth, safe road, and Do It Now."

Suppose the road Brown is on is the coffee or tea road. Hundreds have had trouble on that road. Doctors have sounded the warning for the public, and raised the "no-traffic" sign for their patients—time and time again. The drugs, caffeine in coffee and thein in tea, keep whipping the nerves—tending to interfere with sleep, upset digestion, produce high blood pressure, and to wear down health and efficiency by the disturbance of rest and nervous balance. Some folks go a long way on the road; some folks don't seem to notice the jolts—for a while, anyway.

But what would you say to Brown about choosing the safe road instead of the risky one?

And suppose Brown were you?

Postum users travel the sunrise road—away from the coffee and tea jolts and risks.

Postum is free from the possibility of harm for any one, and full of comfort and satisfaction for every one. Even the little children can share in the delights of a hot, mealtime cup of Postum.

No fears, either that Postum will rob the night of sleep as coffee so often does. Postum is a friendly drink for any one any time. And it's good! When you've tried Postum a few days you'll wonder why you ever thought of sacrifice in leaving off coffee or tea. Rich and flavory and satisfying, Postum suits the taste so that there's no longer any thought that you should drink it; only the thought that you want to drink it.

Postum opened the better road and the safe road for coffee and tea drinkers more than a quarter of a century ago, and a steadily increasing multitude is traveling that road—up and on to better enjoyment, better efficiency, better accomplishment.

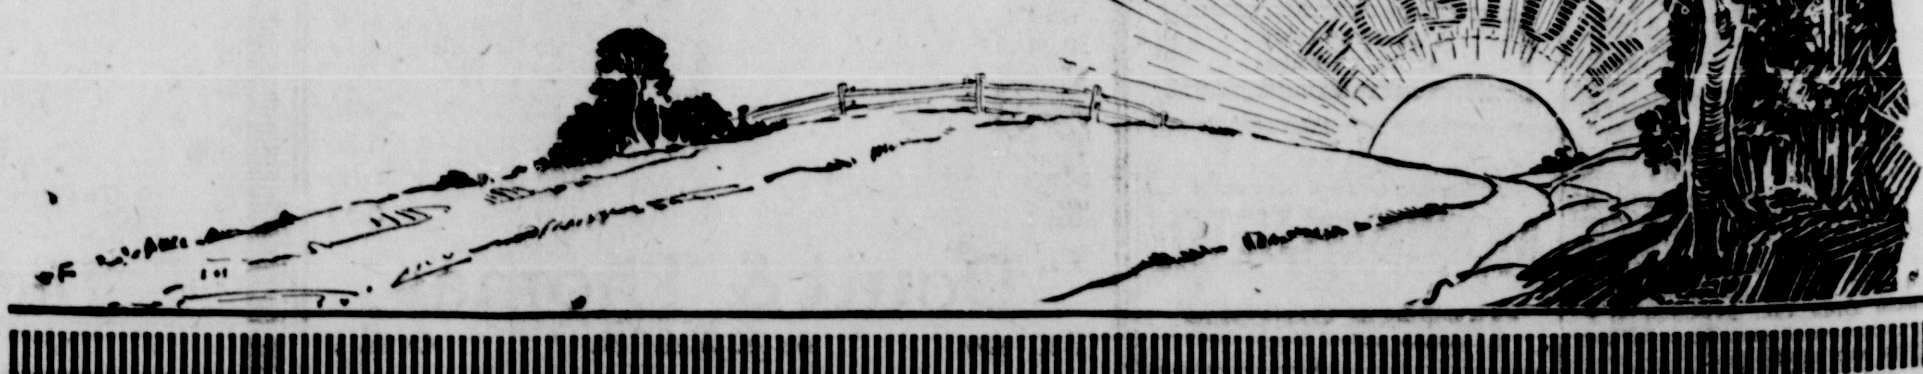

You can buy Postum wherever good food and drink are sold and served. You can begin, now, this turn to the right road which you would so quickly recommend for Brown—by ordering Postum from your family grocer or telling your waiter at the restaurant to serve you Postum instead of coffee or tea.

Make Postum according to directions and enjoy its delicious flavor; find the change in "feeling" after a week's use of Postum. Let the family join you in the trip up the sunrise way.

You'd know what to say to Brown—say it to yourself.

MURDER CHARGE IS UNBELIEVABLE

SENATOR WATSON'S ACCUSATION CONCERNING EXECUTIONS IN FRANCE DISCUSSED.

SECRECIE QUITE IMPOSSIBLE

Unwarranted Hangings Could Not Have Been Hidden From Doughboys and Would Have Been Told of When They Returned.

Washington.—The senate, and the country with it seemingly have been much torn up over the charges made by United States Senator Watson that many American soldiers were executed in France without trial and, as it is intimated, simply because they were insubordinate or were uncivil to their officers.

If there were any such high-handed and high-gallows proceedings as this in France, the news of it would have gone from the Vosges to the North sea benches in telegraphic time. America would have known of it, if not through the mails and by cable because of the censorship, the instant that the first American doughboy set his foot on these shores on his return from overseas service.

It was impossible to hide things from the men in France, and of course the unwarranted execution of twenty-one men could not have been hidden. If they had been taken out and hanged under cover of darkness their buddies would have noted their absence at reveille and things would have started.

There were thousands upon thousands of civilian officers doing duty in France. Except in a few instances, they had no liking for extraordinary punishments because the human equation in the army was just about what the human equation is elsewhere.

A major general commanding one of the great divisions in France told me that during his seven or eight months as commanding officer of 30,000 men there had been just one execution. The man who was hanged was found guilty by a court of the murder of a French woman under most dreadful circumstances. This is one of the 11 hangings which the secretary of war in response to the charges in the senate has reported as having been the number of executions of members of the A. E. F.

Such Things Couldn't Be Hidden.

As already has been intimated, it was impossible to hide things under a bushel in the areas occupied by the American Expeditionary Forces. If an unjust punishment, even of a small kind, were given to a soldier the news of it went abroad instantly. I remember distinctly one particular instance of this. It was a case of overzealousness of discipline and of martinet proceedings. No one was hurt by it except the officer who ordered the punishment, for the punished one did not suffer materially in body, and his spirit could not have been hurt much because he had the entire sympathy of all his comrades.

A high officer of the service was inspecting a division. He was an officer known for his desire that everything, even in the field, should be carried on with dress-parade-like manifestations. There was one recruit in the ranks who perhaps had not been in the service more than two or three months and who could not resist the temptation to turn his head a little to look

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished

Still Powerful Ruler.

With an area of 245,000 square miles, Afghanistan is, next to Tibet, the largest country in the world that is virtually closed to the citizens of other nations. But political life at waxy, alert Kabul is in sharp contrast to the meditative seclusion and classic aloofness of the pious lamas at Lhasa. Amir Amanullah Khan, through his agents in India and elsewhere, is in close touch with the world's current events; and, as the last remaining independent ruler of a Moslem country, now that the power of the caliph at Stamboul is broken, he wields a far-reaching influence throughout the Mohammedan world; also, because his land happens to lie just as it does on the map of the world, it is plain that for a long time to come he will be an active force in the political destinies of middle Asia. Like Menelik of Abyssinia, Queen Lil of the Hawaiian Islands, or the last of the Fijian kings, this Amir, remote and obscure as his kingdom is, stands out in his time as a picturesque world figure.

Nature's Remedy is Better and Safer Than Calomel. Cleans Out System Without Gripping. Stops Sick Headache. Guaranteed.

Bilious attacks, constipation, sick headaches, etc., are in the great majority of cases due to digestive trouble and no reasonable person can expect to obtain real or lasting benefit until the cause is corrected.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is a vegetable compound that acts on the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys, the purpose being to bring about healthy and harmonious action of all the organs of digestion and elimination. It acts promptly and thoroughly, yet so mildly and gently that there is never the slightest gripping or discomfort.

But that is not all. Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) have a beneficial effect upon the entire body, by improving the process of digestion and assimilation, the nourishment is derived from food, the blood quality is enriched, vitality is increased and the whole system strengthened.

Once you get your body in this splendid condition, you need not take medicine every day—just take an NR Tablet occasionally when indigestion, biliousness and constipation threaten, and you can always feel your best. Remember, keeping well is easier and cheaper than getting well.

Get a 25c box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and try it. It is sold guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.

A Message to Feeble Old People

Erie, Pa.—"I am nearly 80 years old, and infirmities left me weak, run-down and nervous so I could hardly keep around and do the work. I tried different remedies but did not seem to gain. I read about Vinol and tried a bottle. In a few days I began to recuperate and it certainly did me a world of good. I feel much better and stronger in every way. My sister, who is 86 years old, has also taken Vinol with excellent results."—Mrs. JULIA M. RATHBUN, 1010 French Street, Erie, Pa.

HAY FEVERITES MADE TOWN

Chance Discovery Had Great Effect on the Building Up of Petoskey, Mich.

A most unwelcome visitor is hay fever. With its advent a vast army of hay feverites move northward; some to the Maine woods, some to Mackinac Island and points farther north, and many to Petoskey, Mich., or its immediate vicinity, which seems to be a most popular camping ground for sufferers from the "hay."

We met a real old lady there a few summers ago, who told us that she believed she was the first person to discover that the Petoskey atmosphere had a curative effect on hay fever; she was a sufferer with that disease herself and more than fifty years ago, she said, she and her husband were en route by boat from Chicago to a point much farther north when they were driven by a violent storm into the bay at Petoskey, where they remained for two or three days, during which time she noticed that she was entirely free from hay fever. At that time the medical profession was giving hay fever an extensive study, so when this lady and her husband returned to Chicago they related their experience and suggested that as Petoskey was so accessible to Chicago, the hay feverites form a colony and try out the place the next summer, which they did. They found Petoskey a straggling Indian village, with positively no accommodations for visitors, but as time went on and people continued to go there each year for hay fever, it gradually grew into a flourishing up-to-date town with several thousand inhabitants.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THANKSGIVING DAY

THERE is a special significance in the recognition of the Thanksgiving Day of 1921. It comes in the 300th year of Pilgrim remembrance, the ter-centenary of the founding of the Plymouth Colony.

Let us remember the Pilgrim faith and courage and devotion, and be thankful in our turn for the countless blessings that are a part of the civilization of today.

Fiancee To Get Cash By Terms Of Faust's Will

Coroner J. M. Van Fossan, upon orders issued by Judge Riddle, has turned over to the probate court all of the securities belonging to the estate of the late Harry Faust, who was found dead in his bed at his home in Columbiana a few days ago.

The securities consisted of a copy of his will, the original of which is in the hands of the Fidelity Title & Trust Co. to act as executor of his estate, and a representative of that company came to Lisbon to take charge of the securities in this county, but Judge Riddle refused to turn them over until after the appointment of executor is made in this court. The bulk of deceased estate is located in Pittsburg.

By the terms of the will Miss Annie Irwin, of Baltimore, Md., whom deceased expected to marry, will receive $5000 and relatives of his deceased wife will receive $3,000. The Methodist Episcopal church of Columbiana, the church of his deceased wife's childhood, is given $200, and the balance of estate is given to deceased nieces and nephews.

Boy Scouts Work Through Rain To Finish Cabin Roof

Working in the rain Saturday Boy Scouts finished the roof on their cabin, which with the fitting of windows and doors by George McArthur later this week, will nearly put the cabin in shape to furnish protection from storm while the finishing is done. The cabin is located in the Lee W. Atkinson woods west of the city.

Material for the chimney will be on the ground this week and with the Scouts at work all of Friday and Saturday it is hoped that most of the outside work will be finished soon.

Troop committeemen W. F. Church and H. A. Greiner took part in a very impressive investiture ceremony set on by Troop 1, Boy Scouts, during their meeting Monday evening.

Candidates Campbell, Chalfant and Gamble were invested with the degree of Tenderfoot after taking the Scout oath. This investiture was conducted by the scoutmaster and senior patrol leader.

Committeeman Church invested Senior Patrol Leader Frederick Eastman, and Patrol Leaders Eric Eastman, William Baker and Hiram Greiner with the degree of First Class, which is the highest rank to be obtained before taking merit badges.

Increased activity in test and degree work has been manifested for several weeks, developing the four patrols for honor position each month. A unanimous vote of thanks was extended Committeeman Greiner for the complete outfit of flags presented by him to the troop.

PROBATE COURT NAMES EXECUTORS OF ESTATES

The widow of John K. Rich has refused to act as executrix of his estate which is located in United township, and Judge Riddle has appointed E. D. Moody to serve as administrator under $6,000 bond. H. J. Fraser, D. W. McCloskey and C. S. McCloskey have been named to appraise the estate.

The will of Dr. William J. Taylor, who died recently in East Liverpool, has been filed in the probate court, and a commission has been issued to J. C. Campbell, of New Concord, Ohio to take the deposition of Laura Reynolds, a witness who resides there and is without the jurisdiction of this court, and return the same to the court here. When this is done the will may be admitted to probate.

The commission issued to take the depositions of R. W. Lindsay and Milton H. Turner, witnesses to the will of the late Maude S. Worton, of East Liverpool, has been returned to the court and the will of B. Eynon, to act as executor and by the terms of the will no bond is required of him. J. C. Hanley, R. M. Brookes and Perry L. Rigby will make the appraisal.

An authenticated copy of the will of Ellen Kelly, whose death occurred in Washington county, Pa., has been presented to Judge Riddle by D. W. Kelly for record in this court. The deceased had an estate in this county making the recording of the will necessary. D. W. Kelly also presented a copy of the will of Anthony Kelly here for record. He also died in Washington county, Pa.

In the estate of Allen Miller, late of Salem, L. A. Bandy was appointed administrator to act under $900 bond, which he furnished with the American Surety Co. as surety. Max Adler, H. A. Gager and John S. McNutt will appraise the property in the estate.

Home

Abraham Lincoln once said, "A nation is no stronger than the foundation of homes upon which it is built." That statement is true today. Happiness, contentment, progress and ambition depends first and largely upon the home. Beautiful houses, wonderful mothers and ideal fathers are all essential to home happiness, but good and attractive furniture is necessary to make the home complete. A poorly furnished, poorly decorated place of abode is not really a home nor a place to rest. The effect of good furniture upon children while their characters are in the making is without measure. It helps them to appreciate the finer things of life and influences them to want to stay at home.

THIS IS THE SEASON WHEN HOME MEANS MOST TO EVERY RIGHT THINKING PERSON

Thanksgiving is at hand—Christmas but a few weeks away—the holiday time, when family ties are strongest and everyone's thoughts are centered about the home, and when the home should appear at its best.

We would like to have all home lovers to visit our store and look over our high grade stock of Furniture with our attractive prices. There is no reason why you should be without the things that make a home really worth while.
